A Renewal fee of $170.00 should accompany this form. If the request is late, an additional late fee of $30 is required. In the event that the application is not accepted, the fee will be returned in full. It is expected that the applicant will conscientiously answer all questions and if the circumstances have changed so that the candidate no longer requires credentials, that the applicant will frankly say so.

If financial hardship is a factor in not returning the application the candidate may confidentially write the General Secretary for special consideration. Failure to renew annually will result in your credentials being revoked.
